CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

The Rue Felix Faure is one of the chief roads of the delightful Riviera town of Cannes. It is bordered with beautiful shops, and is invariably thronged with saunterers, purchasers, and idlers, as it leads to one of the central promenades of Cannes — the Allées de la Liberté. No. 43, Rue Felix Faure was the birthplace of the great Provençal poet, Emile Négrin.

June 27. Went to church this afternoon, & found old friends waiting to see me. Mrs. Mitchell and her 17 yrs old daughter. They used to live next door to us on Jarmen St and we liked them so much. Then they moved to Elmira N.Y. Anna has called & she has been visiting here. Joseph wanted to see me as they all heard talked of me so often. He was about five when they left James St and Rome to go to Elmira. Was delighted to see them.

Hanna and I went to the Universalist Church to Mrs. Davidson Recital. The singing was fine. First time, Hanna had heard the Quartette sing. It was a pleasant musical hour and we enjoyed it.
